Description

Colonial luxury in San Miguel. Casa Heyne is an exquisite colonial hacienda-style home. This beautiful private residence will captivate you with its extensively landscaped grounds and stunning panoramic views of downtown and the surrounding countryside.

The cathedral-like entry invites you up the stairway to the main living area. The elegant living room overlooks the striking landscaped gardens and features a fifty foot carved wood beam ceiling, a fireplace and luxurious furnishings.

The villa boasts eight furnished patios for enjoying the outdoors, including dining areas and lounge chairs for sunning, a fishpond, waterfall, a sequestered dipping pool and extensively landscaped grounds. The intimate dining room and fabulous tiled, domed kitchen ceilings create the ambiance of old Mexico with all the modern conveniences.

Casa Heyne has a staff of six, including Raul, an English speaking houseman, who will take care of your every need. Raul will shop for groceries and assist with meal planning. Irene, an experienced cook lives on the premises. Four other staff members take care of the garden, the laundry, housekeeping and serving meals.
